Churchill

Speaker – Tony Harris

Tony Harris is a professional comedian, raconteur and actor who specialises in historical talks with a hysterical twist that tackle Churchill, the sinking of the Titanic, Hercule Poirot, the Loch Ness Monster and the Curse of Tutankhamun.

For two years Tony lived and worked at Hampton Court Palace and played Henry VIII every other day for the benefit of more than half a million tourists.

He learnt his Tudor trade at the feet of major historical experts and has been bringing his unique blend of history and comedy to the speaker circuit for the past six years.

His aim is to trick people into learning by making them laugh, but every point he makes is historically accurate.

Tony's booming voice means he doesn't have to use sound systems but he is equally as comfortable with a microphone as he is unplugged.
